Brief

Green Alpha is an Egyptian startup focused on preserving and promoting cultural heritage through engaging, hands-on educational experiences designed for Generation Alpha. Its core product, the Origami Heritage Game Box, combines creativity and learning by allowing children to explore Egyptian history through model-making. The initiative aims to build cultural awareness and national pride among young learners, with ambitions to integrate its approach into school curricula and expand internationally through partnerships with educational and cultural institutions.

About Us

Green Alpha is an educational origami brand designed to introduce children to ancient Egyptian civilization in a creative, hands-on way.

- Well-designed origami sheets
- Storytelling
- Creativity& skills development
- Cultural Heritage